ALL STARS TO PLAY LOCAL KACEYS ON A $250 TO NOTHING BASIS

Any team that is willing to play play on a "winner take all" basis must be a regular team for there is thardly any semi-pro team in the country today that is playing ball simply for the love of the toyer. Somebody pays. Yet this is the case with the Hartford All-Star team that comes to Norwich to oppose the fast local Knights of Columbus team next Sunday.

The Hartford team which is managed by Jack Hubbard of Hartford has put up a proposition to Manager Bill O'Leary of the local team that looks good. The Hartford team is to come to Norwich and if they are returned winners they take 250 iron men back with them but if they lose they take the air. Local people since the game was announced have been sceptical as to what kind of a team would come to Norwich. The fans have been of the opinion that it would be some ham team as they did not see now a real team could take such a long chance. However, Norwich fans can rest assured that they will see some game for Manager Hubbard has been out and dug up some real telent, as can be seen by the lineup he has announced.

The nitebles staff of the All Stars

The pitching staff of the All-Stars includes Shields who played last year with Manchester; Burkhardt, who beat the local team on Memorial Day when he pitched for Manchester and Burkmeyer the premier hurler of the Hartford Pioneers. The catcher's are Muldoon, who caught for the American Thread team last year, and Matchette, who did the backstop work for Manchester last season. Brennan of the Ware, Mass, team will be or first; Warnick, who played with Manchester last year will be on second base; Masser, of the Coebills and last year with Manchester, or Wals of the Hartford Pioneers will be at short; Jardine of the Aetna Insurance league will be Giants took a commanding lead of the Aetha Insurance league will be at third. In the outfield will be Hub-bard, a former Bates college varsity man, Murphy of Coebill fame, Chand-ler of the Fuller Brush team and Mur-

The Kacey team will lineup the same as last Sunday and with a lineup such as the All-Stars will bring down it is evident that a real game will be seen. The Kacey team has been hitting along at a good stride as can be seen by the following batting aver-

The patronage has been falling off during the last few games owing argely to the threatening weather that has prevailed but it is not the Kacey team that suffers but the Tuberculosis Outdoor Fund to which or berculosis Outdoor Fund to which all the proceeds of the baseball gam this year. The games at the Fall to give the fans of Norwich a go brand of baseball and to contribute a worthy cause.

Only the expenses of the games are deducted from the proceeds and the surplus is put into the fund. So every game that is played at the Fairgrounds this year is not for profit but for a worthy cause. One will have to go far to find another team that is doing the same and such a team deserves the patronage of the public deserves the patronage of the public to say nothing of seeing some rea high class baseball.
